

Wolf-Gordon (Prior Investment)

Wolf-Gordon Inc., headquartered in Long Island City, New York, is a leading designer, marketer, and distributor of wallcoverings and upholstery for commercial properties. The company's product portfolio includes wallcoverings made from natural fibers, textiles, vinyl, polyolefins, acoustical fabrics, architectural paint finishes, and environmentally-sustainable materials. Through its nationwide sales force and showrooms, Wolf-Gordon reaches customers in the corporate, hospitality, retail, and healthcare industries.

Wolf-Gordon's proprietary wallcovering designs are developed both internally, using the company's design department, and in partnership with leading industrial designers. In addition to the company's standard product offering, Wolf-Gordon also offers digitally-printed custom wallcovering capabilities to its customers. In 2008, Wolf-Gordon entered the commercial vinyl upholstery market, expanding the company's product offering to architects and interior designers.

The company maintains a warehouse and sample-order fulfillment operations at its Long Island City headquarters and operates showrooms in New York City, Los Angeles, and Chicago.
